

FATAL ECONOMY.

COUNCIL ADOPTS THE HODGES RESOLUTION.

Calls for Appointment of a Citizens' Committee to Investigate the City's Finances.

THREE MEN OF EACH PARTY.

President of Merchants' Exchange Asked to Name Them—Author Explains His Purpose—Hospital Fund at Stake.

At yesterday's session of the City Council Captain W. H. Hodges offered a resolution requesting the President of the Merchants' Exchange to name three Democrats and three Republicans, to constitute a citizens' committee to investigate into the condition of the city's finances and report the exact state of affairs.

The resolution was unanimously adopted. It is follows:

A VERY old maxim declares that it isn't economy to pick up pins; the time is worth more than the pins. Similarly it is not true economy to do without Ivory Soap; your health requires the daily removal of the bodily excretions which are discharged through the pores of the skin. These tiny mouths must be kept open, and they should be opened only with a pure soap.

IVORY SOAP—99½ PER CENT. PURE.

You don't have to consult a calendar to know whether spring is here. Come down to our Ivory Soap counter and you will find a glorious wealth of spring goods that would bewilder any but a feminine mind.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Stockholders of the Carnegie Company Met in Pittsburgh.

Pittsburgh, Mar. 27.—The stockholders of the Carnegie Company to-day elected the following directors: Charles M. Schwab, Henry Phillips, George Lauder, William H. Singer, Andrew M. Moreland, Thomas Morrison, James Gaffey, Thomas Lynch, James H. Dill. The board organized and elected the following officers: President, Charles M. Moreland.

The company, designated as "The Carnegie Steel Company," Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, has as its officers those who were the officers of the Carnegie Steel Company, Limited, without exception. The officers of the Pittsburgh plant, however, and other constituents of the Carnegie Company remain as heretofore also.

The board of directors will assume formal control of the Carnegie Steel Company and its constituents on April 1.

ANTI-WINEROOM CRUSADE.

Mass Meeting to Be Held on April 10—Place Not Selected.

At the meeting of the Anti-Wineroom Crusade yesterday afternoon, in room No. 202, old Buildings building, it was decided to hold a mass meeting on Tuesday, April 10, the place to be decided later. When it is selected the names of the speakers will be added.

The following officers were appointed to the meeting: Vice-chairman, Father Coffey; Dean Davis, Mrs. Ingalls and Early Commissioner Higgins were among them.

THAT'S IT. The high-grade, fair price BAKING POWDER. JACK FROST. A full pound can, 25 cents. Your grocer recommends JACK FROST.

LOUIS C. BOHLE LIVERY CO. Undertakers and Embalmers. Carriages—$3.00 | Hearse—$35.00 Black Cloth Cases, First-Class Goods, 50 and Upwards. GLOBE STABLE, 1022 CHESTNUT ST. TELEPHONE, MAIN 67.

DEATHS.

BUCKLEY—On San Rafael Sunday, March 26, 1899, at 8:45 a.m., John Edward Buckley, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Buckley, and brother of Mrs. Mamie Barron, Mrs. Thomas W. Murphy, and Arthur, the late author of "Lingerine Blues," aged 24 years and 11 months. Funeral services, Monday, March 27, at 1 p.m., from the Ursuline Novitiate, Calvary Cemetery, Veterans' Church, Ursula in Calvary Cemetery. Friends invited to attend. Please call for flowers.

COWHEY—Monday, March 27, 1899, at 8:45 a.m., John Edward Cowhey, beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Cowhey, and brother of Mrs. Mamie Barron, Mrs. Thomas W. Murphy, and Arthur, the late author of "Lingerine Blues," aged 24 years and 11 months. Funeral services, Monday, March 27, at 1 p.m., from the Ursuline Novitiate, Calvary Cemetery, Veterans' Church, Ursula in Calvary Cemetery. Friends invited to attend. Please call for flowers.

CUMMINGS—On Tuesday, March 27, 1899, at 4 o'clock a.m., James, beloved husband of Mrs. Mary Cummings, and father of James, Mrs. Anna Cummings, and Margaret, widow of Ernest Goldsmith, aged 45 years.

The funeral will take place Thursday, March 29, 1899, at 11 a.m., at St. Francis Xavier Church, thence to Calvary Cemetery. Friends are invited to attend.

James was a member of St. Joseph's Society.

Omaha, Neb., papers please copy.

DOLIN—Departed this life at 8 p.m., Monday, March 27, 1899, James M. Dolin, age 43 years.

Funeral will take place at 2 p.m., Thursday, March 29, 1899, from family residence.

KIDD—Doctor Albert Joseph Kidd, on March 27, 1899, at 11 a.m., aged 21 years.

Funeral from Union Hall, Hospital and Bank, Saturday, March 28, at 1 p.m., at 10 a.m., under the auspices of Beacon Lodge, No. 3, A. F. & A. M. Funeral parlor.

San Jose and San Francisco papers please copy.

LEVERETT—On Tuesday, March 27, 1899, at 6 p.m., Henry Leverett, beloved husband of Mrs. Mary Leverett, and father of James, Mrs. Anna Cummings, and Margaret, widow of Ernest Goldsmith, aged 45 years.

The funeral will take place Thursday, March 29, 1899, at 11 a.m., at St. Bernard's Church, thence to Mount Calvary Cemetery. Friends invited to attend.

MADIFFIT—On Friday, March 27, 1899, after a short illness, Charles McDiffit, son of James and Mary Madiffit, died at 11 a.m., at his home, 1025 Franklin street, between Sixteenth and Chestnut streets, on Wednesday morning, March 28, at 10 o'clock. Interment private.

FADDICK—Sunday, March 27, 1899, at 8:45 a.m., Mrs. Anna Faddick, beloved wife of Edward Faddick, and mother of Edward, Mrs. Anna Powers, and Mrs. Anna Noble.

Funeral from family residence, No. 2506 Harrison street, Thursday, March 27, at 2 p.m., at St. Matthew's Church, Sarah and Kennedy avenue, thence to Calvary Cemetery. Friends invited.

Edward, N. J., and Los Angeles, Cal., Montreal, Canada, papers please copy.

THERNEY—Tuesday, March 27, 1899, at 6 p.m., Patrick J. Therney, dearly beloved husband of Edelia Therney (nee Hale) and father of Joseph A. Therney, Mrs. Anna Powers, and Mrs. Anna Noble, Mrs. George Pyser, and Sister Mary Alice.

Funeral from family residence, No. 607 Cottage Avenue, Thursday, March 27, at 2 p.m., at St. Matthew's Church, Sarah and Kennedy avenue, thence to Calvary Cemetery. Friends invited.

Edward, N. J., and Los Angeles, Cal., Montreal, Canada, papers please copy.

WALSH—On Tuesday, March 27, 1899, at 1:30 p.m., Margaret O'Brien Walsh, wife of the late David Walsh, and beloved wife of Edward, Mrs. Anna Powers, and Mrs. Anna Noble.

Funeral from family residence, No. 2506 Harrison street, Thursday, March 27, at 2 p.m., at St. Malachy's Church, thence to Calvary Cemetery.

Decided was a member of St. Ann's Society, St. Malachy's Parish.

WOOLMAN—At 6:35 o'clock a.m., Tuesday, March 27, 1899, Mary A., beloved mother of 150, Mrs. John Williams and Lucy Woolman, aged 70, died at her home, 1025 Franklin street.

Services will be held at 7 p.m., Wednesday, March 28, at residence, No. 2515 North Broad street, Friends invited. Remains will be taken to Montgomery City, Mo., for interment.

JUDGE REFUSED THE DIVORCE.

No Difference Before the Law Between a Circus and a Church.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 27.—C. B. Carothers was to-day refused a divorce from his wife, Catherine C. Johnson, formerly of St. Genevieve, Mo. The suit brought forth a sensational ruling from Judge E. H. Stowe, who declared there is no difference between a circus tent and a church.

The couple were married in St. Louis, June 1, 1891. Carothers is his suit or divorced, as he was too fond of his wife, so that she spent much time with a show of which her brother is manager, and that she had taken part in street parades. Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced, and closed the case at once.

"I don't care whether she went to a circus or to church. There's no difference between them, as far as I'm concerned," he concluded. It remained for Carothers to file his appeal.

The jury returned a verdict refusing the divorce.

Judge Stowe grew very angry when this was introduced